Focus Formula Review

*Please Note:* According to some consumers, Focus Formula is more effective when used in combination with BrightSpark (click here to see our review on BrightSpark).

Is Focus Formula a Scam?

No complaints are found on consumer complaints websites, and no complaints are found in various web forums.

Pros:

-Most of the consumer opinions for this product as collected from forums etc. are very positive. (Please see consumer feedback section below.)

-Focus Formula is made from natural herbal ingredients, has no known side effects, and can be used by both children and adults.

-Some benefits include: support of oxygen and nutrient transport to the brain, enhancement of concentration and memory, balancing of mood and energy levels, and maintenance of adequate attention span.

Cons:

Apparently, although Focus Formula is working great for many people, it's not doing anything for certain people. With Native Remedies' solid money back guarantee, though, you are encouraged to try it out to see if it works for you or your loved one. Also, it takes longer for the formula to work for some people than others and, although some people experience immediate improvements, it could take up 3-6 weeks for some people.

Side Effects of Focus Formula:

No known side effects, but please consult your personal physician before using this product.

Customer Feedback / Comments:

"He has been on Focus for 10 days now.....Last week was Dillons best week at school....EVER! His report has many that read GOOD DAY! Today also. He is MUCH calmer, very cooperative, polite, just nice to be around. Every one has made a comment on his behavior being so good." -- Actual Consumer Comments from ADHDNews[dot]com Forums

"Hes been on Brightspark and Focus now for about 1 full week. it seems to help him stop and think a little better rather than just react into something ugly. I am hoping the longer he takes it the better the results." -- Actual Consumer Comments from ADHDNews[dot]com Forums

"The longer my son has taken the Focus/Bright Spark, the better things have been. Knock on wood, his temper tantrums are now few and far between. When he does have one, it is SO much easier to calm him down. Things we used to battle over are now easy. He even doesn't mind doing his homework." -- Actual Consumer Comments from ADHDNews[dot]com Forums

"He has been taking the Focus and Bright Spark for 5 weeks now. I must say that I started with Focus only, and then introduced the Bright Spark one week later. It was when I introduced the Bright Spark that the biggest changes came. I have experimented by giving him Bright Spark only, but he doesn't do as well. He seems to do best on both." -- Actual Consumer Comments from ADHDNews[dot]com Forums

"My son has been on Focus for two weeks with no improvements." -- Actual Consumer Comments from ADHDNews[dot]com Forums

"My husband and I agree that we are seeing definite results from the Focus/Brightspark combination. My 7 yo ds has been on them for three weeks now...I had actually taken a break from formal lessons because it was getting to be such a battle. Just getting him to write one sentence would result in an hour-long stand-off. This week, we've done our lessons everyday - math, writing, reading, recorder and art. He's been willing to do his lessons, done them neatly and is making alot of progress in math (which had been a disaster before)." -- Actual Consumer Comments from ADHDNews[dot]com Forums

"My son did a complete 360 about 72 hours after starting this. We were truly shocked. I never thought it would have such a strong impact. As soon as we miss a dose his motor starts running overtime again. We also tried it on my daughter and it didn't seem to have any effect. Both hyperactive. Go figure. But the results we achieve make it well worth trying." -- Actual Consumer Comments from Amazon[dot]com
